"Have succeeded in financing Lodi Have now raised $70,000. Another $100,000 being rapidly subscribed for. C. I. Burt."

This telegram means that Lodi will go forward with a bound. It means that work on the emelter will be started at once and that the ores now on the dumps will have economical treatment before the end of this year.

treatment before the end of this year.

The Lodi mines property is located in Nye county, the nearest railroad point is Austin. The Illinois and the Welsh veins have been worked most and since their discovery in 1875 have produced in round numbers $815,000 worth of bullion. This "utput was realized during a checkered career of management and against great obstacles. The above bullion was taken from one ore shoot and the workings now extended to the level of 580 feet disclose additional mineralized rock, according to mining company, consisting of gallows frame, engine house, holosting engine with cable, beer and feed pump, and all other surface improvements which were upper to the day of the mortgage time of the workings now extended to the level of 580 feet disclose additional mineralized rock, according to mining company, consisting of gallows frame, engine house, holosting engine with cable, beer and feed pump, and all other surface improvements which were upper to the day of the mortgage to the value of $1,130,000. The smelter now provided for by Denver capital will be designed to handle the ore in sight in the mineral and on the dumps. In the past 10 ore running less than $50 to the ton has been shipped.

A faint outline of the enormous capable production is therefore given in these brief remarks.

Lodi is also attracting other Newada outsiders. Messrs, Walker and Rope of the Queen Mining company and the Coalition flotation of Rawhide have taken a bond on a property six miles north of Lodi and are sacking $200 ore. These operators have have a page, under the coality of Nye, State of Nevada.
